If you plan to attend online, then you will require reliable high-speed Internet access and a computer with a webcam and a headset with a microphone. There may also be certain classes that will be only online: e.g., if I cannot access campus as well as for midterm exams.

7. Lectures
   Wednesdays and Fridays 16:05 – 17:25 (Eastern Time) in Tory Building room TB 340 or online via the Zoom link on the course Brightspace page. All lectures will be taught online from January 10-31.

   The lectures in this course will be recorded and made available only to those within the class. Please note that recordings are protected by copyright. The recordings are for your own educational use, but you are not permitted to publish to third party sites, such as social media sites and course materials sites.
8. Course grading scheme

7.1 Homework assignments (40%)
Assignments will be given weekly and posted on Brightspace, with the due date and time noted there. Please scan and submit your solutions via Brightspace in a single pdf file.

Late assignments will not be accepted except for legitimate reasons such as illness. It is your responsibility to notify the instructor if you will be unable to hand in the assignment by the deadline.

Working through problems is an essential part of developing a deep understanding of the course material. Students are permitted to discuss concept and strategies related to solving the homework assignments; however, the work handed in must be their own. Copying any part of the solution from an online resource like Chegg is considered an academic offence.

7.2 Midterm exams (25%)
There will be two online midterm exams which will be held during the scheduled lecture times on February 9th and March 16th. You may use your notes and textbook during the exam, but no other assistance is allowed (eg. accessing the internet is not permitted). After each midterm exam there will be a mandatory follow-up oral exam.

Please note that tests and examinations in this course will use a remote proctoring service provided by Scheduling and Examination Services. You can find more information at https://carleton.ca/ses/e-proctoring/.

7.3 Final exam (35%)
An online final exam will be held during the final exam period from April 14th-28th. The exam will be 3 hours in duration. More information about the final exam will be provided closer to the final exam date. A mandatory follow-up oral exam will be scheduled after the exam.

Academic Regulations, Accommodations, Plagiarism, Etc.:
University rules regarding registration, withdrawal, appealing marks, and most anything else you might need to know can be found on the university’s website, here:

http://calendar.carleton.ca/undergrad/regulations/academicregulationsoftheuniversity/

Academic Integrity
Submitting an examination or an assignment that is copied, in whole or in part, from someone else is considered plagiarism, which is an academic misconduct offence. This includes copying the full solution or any part of the solution from an online resource like Chegg, or from any other type of unauthorized source.

Plagiarism is a serious offence that cannot be resolved directly by the course’s instructor. The Associate Dean of the Faculty conducts a rigorous investigation, including an interview with the student, when an instructor suspects a piece of work has been plagiarized. Penalties are not trivial. They can include a final grade of “F” for the course.
